

New York Center for Art & Media Studies • Chelsea, New York City

A program of Bethel University—College of Arts & Sciences

Dates

Fall 2010–May 2011 (nine months)

Expectations

- Fellows must pay for their own materials.
- In addition to a nominal tuition of $2,000, all fellows will give assistance to art faculty members in operating the studios, as well as building, repairing, etc. as needed. Each fellow will give five hours of work time per week for the duration of the program.
- Each fellow is expected to commit a minimum of 20 hours per week of personal studio time in developing their portfolio.
- All fellows will also take part together in a mid-program critique, as well as two critiques per month with his or her mentor.
- At the program's end, all fellows will plan and implement an exhibition of their work at the NYCAMS gallery (April 2010).
- Last, fellows are required to seek exhibition of their work in a venue outside the program upon completion of the program.

Application

The application process requires the following:

- Cover letter of application
- 10 images of work on CD
- One-paragraph project proposal
- Resume
